

You wash your car at the car wash instead of in the street or driveway .

Collect one happy rain drop or discard one sad rain drop

Farmers in your town decide to spray pesticides from a plane rather than applying them on the ground.

Collect one sad rain drop.

Farmers in your town decide to use cover crops to reduce sediment in a nearby stream.

Collect one happy rain drop.

Farmers allow their animals to drink and walk in the river.

Collect one sad rain drop.

Your class picks up trash in the park by your school.

Collect one happy rain drop or discard one sad rain drop

You see a neighbor dumping motor oil down the storm drain.

Collect one sad rain drop.

Your town plants riparian buffers along the river to prevent flooding.

Collect one happy rain drop.

You see a neighbor on their daily walk leave their dog's waste on the side of the road without picking it up.

Collect one sad rain drop.

You tell a friend about how storm drains lead straight to rivers.

Collect one happy rain drop or discard one sad rain drop

Oh no! There is a leak at the wastewater treatment plant.

Collect one sad rain drop.

Your school is redoing the parking lot and replaces asphalt with pervious pavement.

Collect one happy rain drop.

Old cars are leaking motor oil into the street.

Collect one sad rain drop.

You help raise money to install rain barrels at your school.

Collect one happy rain drop or discard one sad rain drop

A factory in your town is pumping toxic waste straight into the river.

Collect one sad rain drop

Your town installs bioswales in ditches along the road to slow stormwater down.

Collect one happy rain drop.

You see a storm drain blocked with leaf litter that water cannot go through.

Collect one sad rain drop.

You help rake leaves and dispose of them properly .

Collect one happy rain drop or discard one sad rain drop

Your family sprays fertilizer on the lawn right before it rains.

Collect one sad rain drop.

Your library plants a rain garden in a low spot.

Collect one happy rain drop or discard one sad rain drop

You throw hazardous household cleaning products in the trash instead of disposing of them properly.

Collect one sad rain drop.

Parks in your town install pet waste bag dispensers.

Collect one happy rain drop or discard one sad rain drop

Oh no! There is a leak at the wastewater treatment plant.

Collect one sad rain drop.

You tell a town official about a clogged storm drain so they can clean it out.

Collect one happy rain drop or discard one sad rain drop

A factory in your town is pumping toxic waste straight into the river.

Collect one sad rain drop

Your city installs more trash cans and recycling bins on main street.

Collect one happy rain drop.

Your sports team helps paint educational murals on storm drains.

Collect one happy rain drop.

The local movie theatre installs a green roof on their building.

Collect one happy rain drop.

Restaurants in your town replace Styrofoam to go boxes with reusable containers to reduce litter.

Collect one happy rain drop.

People in your town forget to maintain their septic tanks and they leak into a nearby creek.

Collect one sad rain drop.

You see a family member flush old medicine down the toilet instead of taking it back to the pharmacy.

Collect one sad rain drop.

Boaters on the river allow their motor oil to leak straight into the water.

Collect one sad rain drop.

A construction site in your town does not use a silt fence and sediment floods into the river when it rains.

Collect one sad rain drop.

You helped keep
stormwater clean for
those downstream!
Move to the closest
happy rain drop and
collect one.

You helped keep
stormwater clean for
those downstream!
Move to the closest
happy rain drop and
collection one.

You forgot how important it is to take
care of stormwater.
Move to closest sad
rain drop and collect one.

You forgot how important it is to take
care of stormwater.
Move to closest sad
rain drop and collect
one.

